

Abstract

MEANS AND METHOD FOR PRESERVING LEGAL RIGHTS BY OBTAINING INDEPENDENT DUI TEST

5 A business method and means are provided to assist individuals accused of a DUI violation in a given state in the United States of America to preserve its legal rights that are provided by the statutes of that state. In addition to a membership card with indicia detailing the information needed to preserve the accused rights, a kit is provided that will allow a tester to have a urine sample analyzed by an independent laboratory. The business method 10 contemplates having two additional members forming a unit team where each of the members become testers for the other member of the unit team.
